- Balancing a job and studying as a student can be challenging but it's definitely manageable with proper planning & time management. Here are some tips I recommend her.
- 1) Create a schedule of your study & personal activities.
 - 2) Identify your most important task for study & work.
 - 3) Break down your study & work goal into smaller & achievable ~~tasks~~ by set deadlines.
 - 4) If possible, communicate with your faculties & employees to adjust your schedule for important task.
 - 5) Be flexible for your unexpected event so accordingly adjust your time.
 - 6) Better to do part-time job.
