Report on Digital Retrieval

Date: 10th August 2018

An IQAC workshop on "Digital Retrieval" was organized at Clara's College of Commerce on 4th August 2018 at 10.00 am in the Computer Lab. All heads of the departments along with their respective faculty members were present to attend the workshop.

One of the most challenging dimensions of digital learning resources is simply the method of identifying, filing and accessing the digital file. An area of emerging interest in the storage and retrieval aspect of digital file management is 'tagging' the file with the appropriate keywords, labels and descriptions, referred to as 'meta tags', in order to quickly locate the file when needed.

The workshop was conducted by Dr. Santosh Hulagabali to understand the digital tools that one need to have access that would enable to quickly gather content and what methods does one have to assign information to these learning resources. The session was very interactive and helpful for the faculty members.

Guest lecture on "Research tools for College students"

Date: 8th October, 2018

The Guest lecture on "Research tools for College students" was jointly organized by Library Advisory Committee and IQAC on 6th October, 2018 at 9.30 am in Room no.41 for the undergraduate and post graduate students of Clara's College of Commerce.

Mr.Pralhad Jadhav- Sr Manager, Library Dept, Khaitan & Co. was invited as a resource person to deliver the lecture for the students.

Total of 45 students mainly from third year of BAF , BMS, B.com and M.Com courses were benefited from the lecture.

The lecture began with welcoming of the invited guest by Mr Pramod Yadav-Librarian and Mrs.Babita Kanoujia-I/C Principal, brief Introduction of the guest was presented by Ms.Archana Narvekar-Asst.Librarian.

At the beginning of the lecture itself Mr.Jadhav stressed upon a fact that, technology is a supplement and it can never replace a teacher or a role performed by a teacher in students' life.

Moving ahead during the lecture he introduced various Google tools which are freely available online and which can be utilized while preparing their college projects, dissertations and even for personal use such as Google Search, Google Advance Search, Google News, Google Alert Services, Google Translation Services, Google Reverse Image search, Google Custom Search, Google Desktop Search, Google office Suit, Google Scholar, Google Books to name a few.

Along with the introduction with these tools, he also highlighted the various information searching strategies that any student can try individually and independently such as using Boolean logic operators, Truncation/wildcard Characters, Exact Phrase Search, Group Term Search, difference between organic and paid searches, news aggregators.

Mr Jadhav Also explained and introduced to the students the new information storing and retrieving tools such as big data, Cloud based storages, Personal Knowledge Management Practices etc. Further, it was also explained to the students that, there are various other educational and research initiatives taken by Ministry of Human Resource Development Dept. of Govt of India to promote technology based education such as E-Pathshala, Virtual Labs, National Digital Library of India, Shodhganga, N-List etc. which are completely free of cost and only requires authorized personal login which opens to the doors of knowledge for all the students and researchers.

After familiarizing students with the various available online research tools, it was also felt important to make students understand about using this information in their work ethically. To make this understand Mr. Jadhav explained to the students, the difference between preparing bibliography and citing references in their project/dissertation work, he also stressed upon the topic of Plagiarism and made student understand the concept by briefing about copywriting acts and its legal and educational implications on ones research if not adhered to the same.

As a concluding part, the speaker made students exercise the tools and initiatives they learnt in the lecture and asked them to have hands on experience by referring the activity sheets given in the library for practice.

The lecture was concluded for the day with a vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Vidushi-Member-Library Advisory Committee.

REPORT ON START UP INDIA

India is fast emerging as a start-up nation. The Indian technology landscape has seen a tremendous growth towards creation of innovative startups and has emerged as the 3rd fastest growing hub for technology startups. Start-up programme strives for developing an entrepreneurial streak among students by helping them acquire an internship in the most spirited and exciting start ups of our country.

IQAC Cell of Clara's College of Commerce organized Students' Development Programme on start-up India on 28th January 2019. The Speaker for the lecture was Mr. Amit Khanzode who is presently working in Forbes Technosys Pvt. Ltd. Activity was coordinated by Dr. Mamta Rajani.

Total beneficiary: - 59 students (Boys 32 & Girls 27) attended the lecture.

In his lecture Amit Sir discussed different ideas about entrepreneurship while looking at innovation leading to startup. He discussed various concepts and issues related to upcoming entrepreneurs with reference to global examples and challenges in the world economy at large. He highlighted the top 3 qualities necessary for the success for start-up; team building, risk taking and entrepreneurial spirit. He elaborated that the passion for creating start-up business is formed by a series of success and through self-motivation. He also involved students to discuss any of their ideas or business in-process so as to make it more realistic and opportunistic. The queries raised by the students were answered by Mr. Amit Khanzode in a gentle and polite way.

Sir ended the session by stressing on the need for a start-up core team to move quickly from their initial stages of forming, storming toward performing.

Financial Literacy Training Programme

On 29th of February 2019, Clara's College of Commerce organized a training programme session on financial literacy.

The programme is aimed at making people aware on how to have a safe and secure financial life, by explaining various instruments like bank deposits, insurance, gold, credit cards, real estate, mutual funds and other tax saving instruments. The speaker for the event was Dr. Pruthviraj Desai.

The speaker delved in to a complete range of issues on money such as how not to lose money, how to be safe with your money and responsible borrowing. He took the audience through the menace of pyramid or chain-money schemes, various Internet-based scams, credit card related issues, importance of credit history, etc. He spoke about various asset classes and inflation risks; various behavioral and external influences that prevent people from investing safely and smartly and how to grow wealth through mutual funds.

He warned the participants on how to look at each of these asset classes and the risks involved and without an understanding of the wealth-creating and wealth-preservation aspects of each investment product and also their possible pitfalls, one can end up with serious losses.

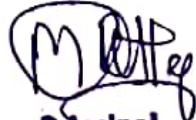

Relevant queries were arises from the side faculty delegates. They got justified answers from the speakers. The interactions were very relevant and meaningful. Participants would be benefitted with this event.

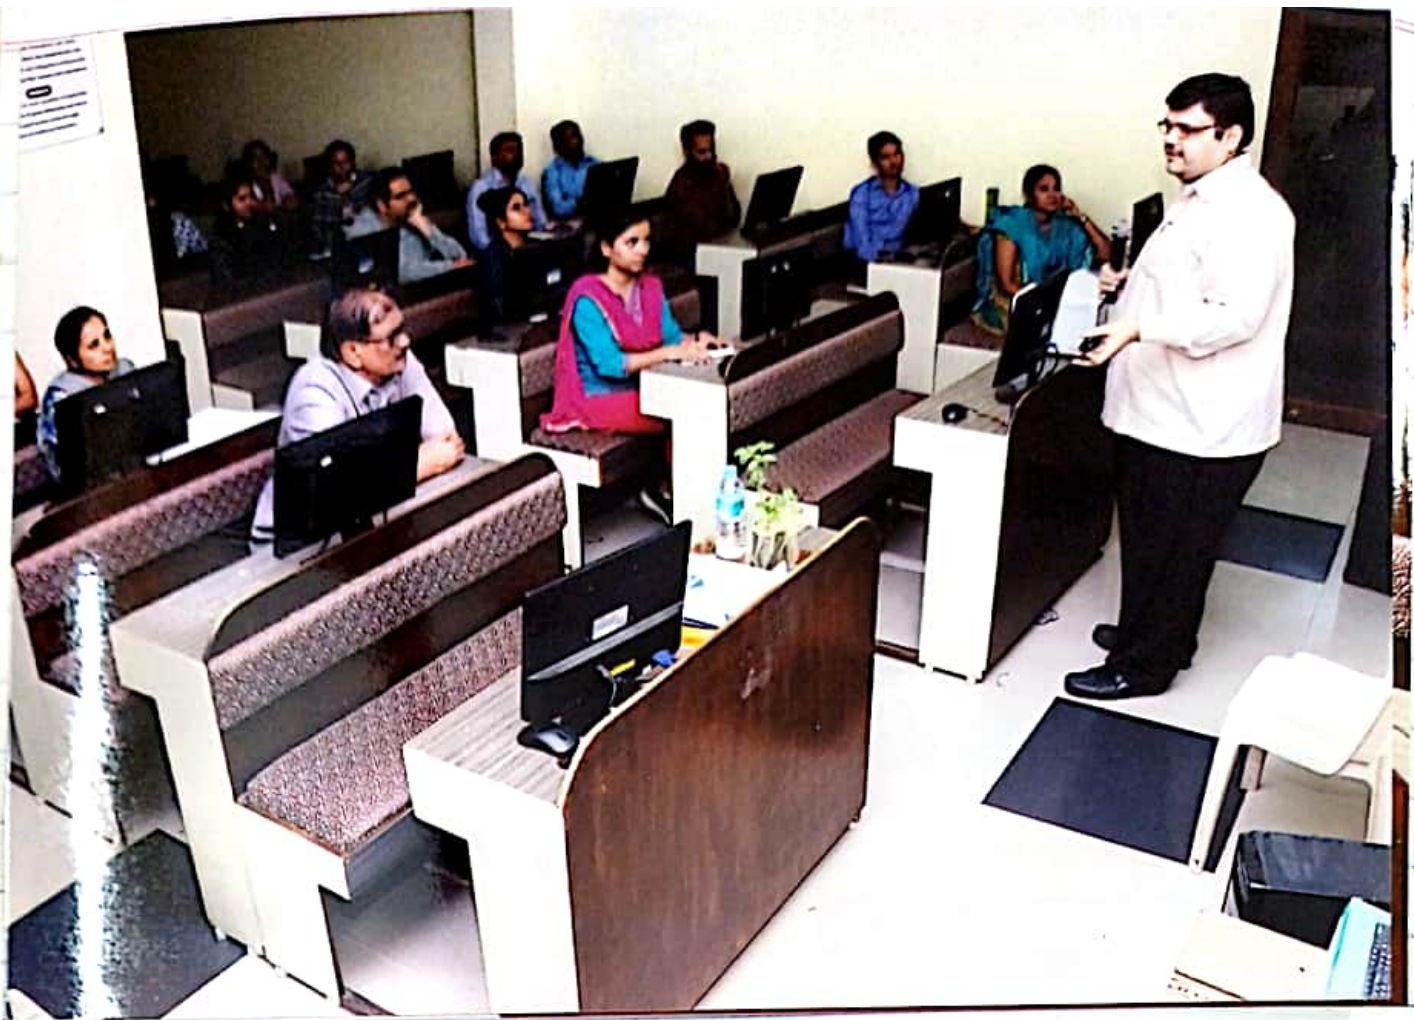

The program ended with a vote of thanks by a Faculty member.

Report on Screenplay Writing.

An IQAC workshop on "Screenplay Writing" was organized in the Audio Visual room of Clara's College of Commerce on Thursday, February 28th, 2019. All the BMM students along with some TYBMS(Marketing) students attended the workshop.

The workshop was conducted by Ms. Ankita Gupta, who is a screenplay writer, film director and a film educationist. She has an overall experience of 5 years in screenplay writing. She started the session by explaining the students the difference between storyboarding and screenplay writing. She also covered the basics of screenplay writing and gave the students an assignment to write a screenplay for Swiggy advertisement. The rest of the session covered the importance of screenplay writing and how it is used in the industry. She concluded the session by telling the students the scope of storyboarding as a career option. The session was very interactive and helpful for the students.
